

TRIO Student Support Services

TRIO - Student Support Services is funded by the U.S. Department of Education to provide academic support for first generation, low-income and/or students with disabilities enrolled at Central Piedmont Community College.

TRIO Student Support Services is a college retention and degree program centered on academic, personal, social and career support for under-resourced college students. Services include:

- personal coaching
- tutoring
- scholarship information and financial aid application assistance
- financial literacy instruction
- information on the college transfer process
- TRIO Student Association
- and more

For more information about the CCCC TRIO - Student Support Services program, visit the program office in Room 117 of Central High Building on Central Campus or the department website at ccc.edu/trioss or call 704.330.6394.
