History

Merancas Campus (formerly North Campus) was the #rst area campus of Central Piedmont.

The Claytor Building (CL), named for former Chairman of the Central Piedmont Board of Trustees, Bill Claytor, was dedicated as the North Center in October 1990. The North Center became North Campus with the addition of the Public Safety Building six years later. In May 2011, North Campus became Merancas Campus, named for the Merancas Foundation, Inc. of Charlotte, N.C.

The Public Safety Building, funded with local bond money, results from a collaborative effort involving area law enforcement professionals, community college leaders, and relevant public groups. Groundbreaking ceremonies were held in October 1995, and the Public Safety Building was occupied in December 1996. On November 3, 2000, this building became the Claudia Watkins Belk Center for Justice (CJ), named after one of Charlotte's most prestigious and prominent citizens.

The Transport Systems Technology Building (TS), occupied in the fall of 2006, was funded by a state bond referendum. The TS Building houses the Automotive Technology, Autobody Repair, and Heavy Equipment Technology programs and a variety of other general education classes and instructors' offices.

The Merancas IV Building was funded with local bond money. Construction was completed in fall 2020 and opened for classes in spring 2021. The building houses the library, bookstore, Middle College, general classrooms, science labs, and administrative offices.
