

ESL Transitions (EST)

EST 6000. English As a Second Language Transitions. 0.0 Hours.

Class-1500.0. Clinical-0.0. Lab-0.0. Work-0.0

This course is designed to build students' language and math skills that are needed to successfully participate in introductory STEM-related (Science, Technology, Engineering, & Math) coursework. Emphasis is placed on reading, writing, speaking, listening, and critical thinking skills. Upon completion, students should be able to apply their language and communication skills to academic and work-related assignments. Contact hours may vary from approximately 70-90 for maximum instructional exposure.

EST 6007. English as a Second Language Transition. 0.0 Hours.

Class-69.0. Clinical-0.0. Lab-0.0. Work-0.0

This course is designed to build students' language and grammar skills that are needed to successfully transition to post-secondary education or training. Emphasis is placed on reading, writing, speaking, listening and critical thinking skills. Upon completion, students should be able to apply their language and communication skills to academic and work-related assignments.