

Dual Enrollment during High School

---

---

Career & College Promise is a tuition free Dual Enrollment program funded by the state of North Carolina. This program allows student to take classes for college credit while they are still in high school. Students must attend a North Carolina high school to participate, which may include public, private, charter or homeschool.

The Career & College Promise website provides more information, including the enrollment steps for students.